We entered in the fall,

You and I.

And when we had passed through

The last gate,

The last line,

The last formality of initiation,

We held our hands out

Waiting . . .

Below the motto, newly graven

On our hearts —

"Dedicated to the truth that makes men free."

And the fall passed into winter.
Who would invite us
To warm our hearts
Before the fire of their intellect?
Waiting, despairing,
Searching for the truth that makes men free.

There were no easy answers,
Many disappointments,
But spring came
And there we were together
You and I
Catching the sunlit glimmer of the truth that makes men free.

From the rosy hopes of expectation
Through the somber blues of sad reflection
To the green-and-gold flecked prize
Of knowledge,
Of patience,
Of understanding . . .

We stood together, hands out
Waiting . . .
And we found Lenoir Rhyne
Dedicated to the plans we set,
The hope we sought,
The goals we followed after.

We put ourselves to action
For the truth that sets men free.

ADMINISTRATION - FACULTY

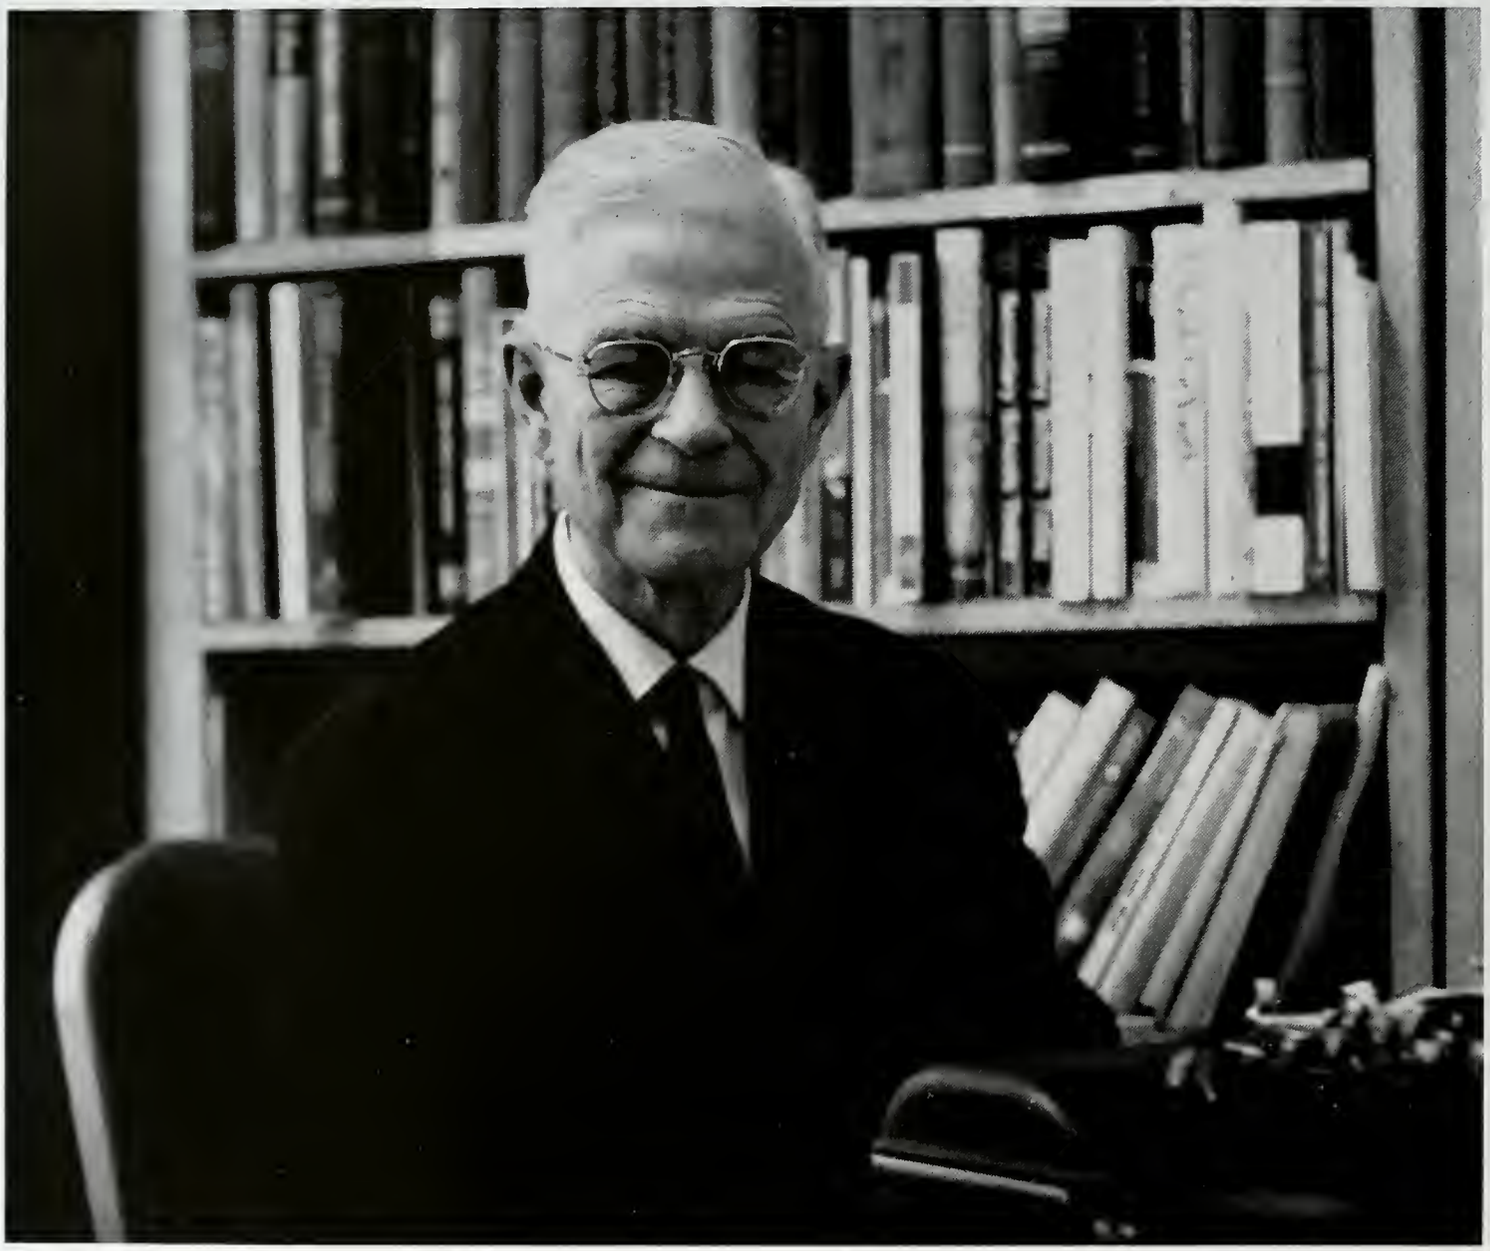

We came,
And they were here before us—
Dedicated to a job they had always done.
And when they had imparted their last
measure of knowledge,
They knew the work was but begun.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Central and paramount in the hustle and bustle of the crowded schedule of campus life must be the search for truth, if a college really deserves the name.

The quest engaging us here is for the truth of fact: ever investigating to accumulate information about all that can be known of man and this universe he inhabits. Our knowledge of the facts helps free us from the bondage of ignorance.

The quest is also for the truth of value: testing, comparing, and reflecting to choose causes and rewards with genuine and superior value. How precious the ability to distinguish between trash and treasure.

The quest is supremely for the truth of faith: revering the Author of all the knowledge man has, and has yet to acquire, determining sound values according to One of supreme worth, entrusting life's eternal destiny to Him whose dominion transcends the walls of time and space.

Lenoir Rhyne seeks to unite us here and always in commitment to that totality of truth which embraces fact, value, and faith—the truth that makes men free.

Mike Campbell: All-Conference, All-NAIA District 26, Honorable Mention All-State, Honorable Mention NAIA All-America, Honorable Mention AP Small College All-America, Lutheran All-America (2nd offensive team). Gained 955 yards in nine games averaging 6.6 yards per carry and led the league in that department. Led the league in scoring with 72 points.

Fans witnessed outstanding individual performances . . .

Herb Arteaga: All-Conference, All-NAIA District 26 (third straight year), Second Team NAIA All-America (defensive unit), Lutheran All-America.

Steve Hinkle: Best place-kicker in LR annals, hitting 22 of 25 PAT boots and five of seven field goal attempts for 37 points, second to Campbell in team scoring.

Eddie Joyner: All-Conference, All-District (offensive and defensive teams), All-State, NAIA All-America (1st offensive team), Associated Press Small College All-America (2nd team defensive unit), Lutheran All-America (1st unit, offense), Outstanding Lineman Carolinas Conference, Kirkland Blocking Award.

Lenoir Rhyne's All-America tackle Eddie Joyner (71) closes in on a Carson-Newman back to spear him with one of his block-busting tackles.

Wayne Bell (33) picks up real estate against Catawba in the Bears' 21-11 loss to the Indians. Bell rallied to the Bear cause, covering 40 yards in 10 carries.

Still the Bears were a fighting team.

An unidentified Catawba back meets the "full onslaught" of Bear defenders Bo Forehand (89), Doug Cole (21), and Robbie Clark (51) in a collision that resembles a train wreck.

Chuck Hughes (42) is off and running on a 30-yard kickoff return against Guilford in the late stages of the third quarter. Hughes returned 10 kickoffs this season, averaging 16.8 yards per return.

Kelly Rudisill (22) comes through with one of his fine defensive efforts, deflecting a pass intended for a Carson-Newman end.

Mike Campbell (41) picks up some of his 172 yards he gained against Carson-Newman on Homecoming afternoon. He was aided by tailback Sam Holcombe.

Though hampered by such natural obstacles as fog . . .

Wingback Toby Morgan runs into some heavy traffic after hauling in a 32-yard pass from Jack Huss in the Carson-Newman game.

Eric Vivian (88) substituted for injured Wayne Bell against Elon and gained 101 yards at fullback. This run by Vivian went for 21 yards.

Pete Paddon hauled in a 39-yard touchdown pass against Carson-Newman. This touchdown was called back for a penalty.

. . . And by such physical obstacles
as a determined opponent, the Bears produced a championship season.

Freshman Mike Tremp (28) recovers a fumble lost by a Newberry back who was tackled by David Elder (86) and Kelly Rudisill (22).

BASKETBALL

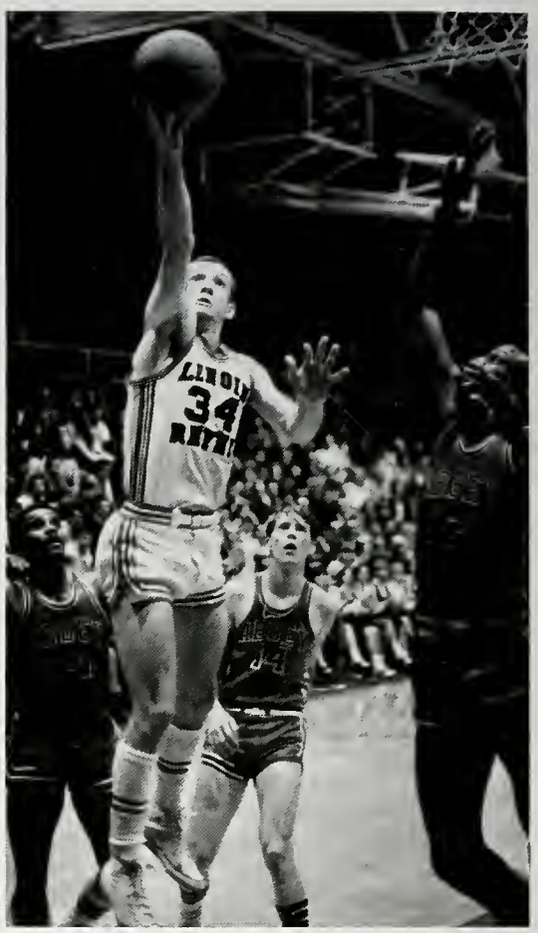

Melvin Ruggles, Bear basketball coach, gives last-minute instructions before sending his troops through another gruelling workout.

In the quarterfinals of the Carolinas Conference Tournament, Aubrey Cochran lays in two of his 19 points in the Bears' win over Newberry.

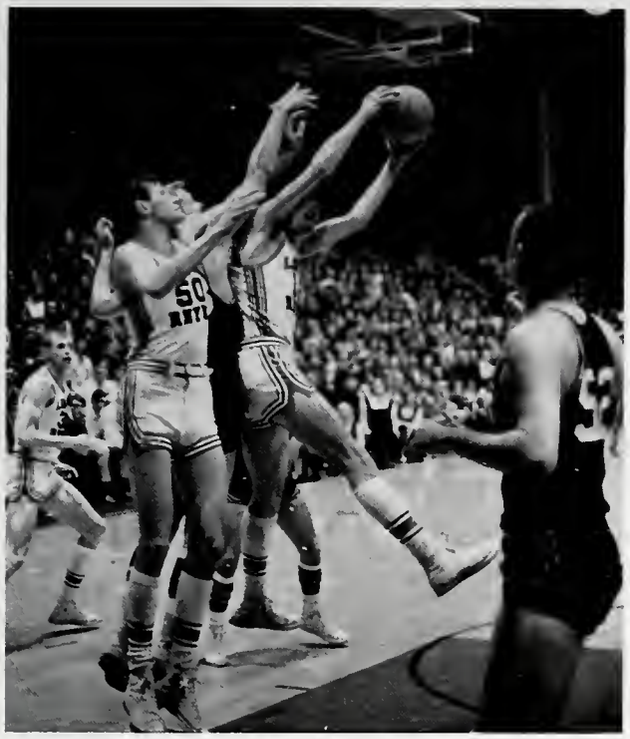

This year Lenoir Rhyne compiled its best record in four years as first-year coach Melvin Ruggles guided the Bears to a 20-8 record. The Bruins went all the way to the semi-finals of the conference tourney. The Bears placed four starters in double-figure scoring.

In the Bears' 90-84 win over Belmont Abbey, R. D. Carson caps a drive with a lay-up after fighting his way through three Crusaders.

Mark LaMoreaux, one of the quickest pivot men in the league for his size, gets past a flat-footed Appalachian forward for a driving lay-up.

Guard David Wells, only 6-3, gets into the action under the boards by pulling down a rebound in the Bears' 77-68 win over Appalachian.

"All alone" is the only way to describe sophomore forward Bill Davis as he rips the cords with one of his stuff shots.

Bill Davis' kangaroo-like jumping ability gives the Bears the opening tap against Wofford.

The Bears defeated every team in the league including league champion Appalachian and district title-holder Guilford. They also won their own Holiday Classic with an impressive win over nationally ranked Georgia Southern. All season long the Bears ranked Number One in the district in team defense and climbed to eighth at one time in the NAIA national rankings.

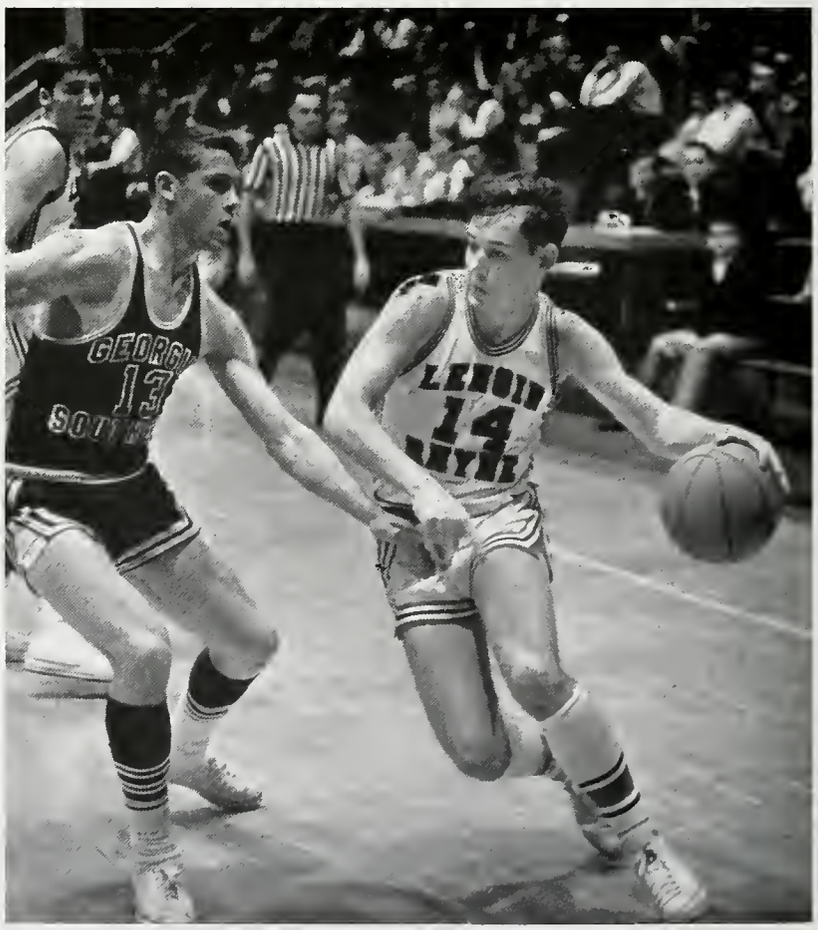

Lenoir Rhyne's most accurate man from the floor, David Wells helps the Bears to a 78-66 revenge win over Guilford with an eight-foot jumper.

Dan Daugherty, a wing man on the Bears' 1-3-1 defense, cuts off an Atlantic Christian pass.

All-Conference and All-District forward Aubrey Cochran hits a lay-up against Newberry in the conference tourney in Lexington.

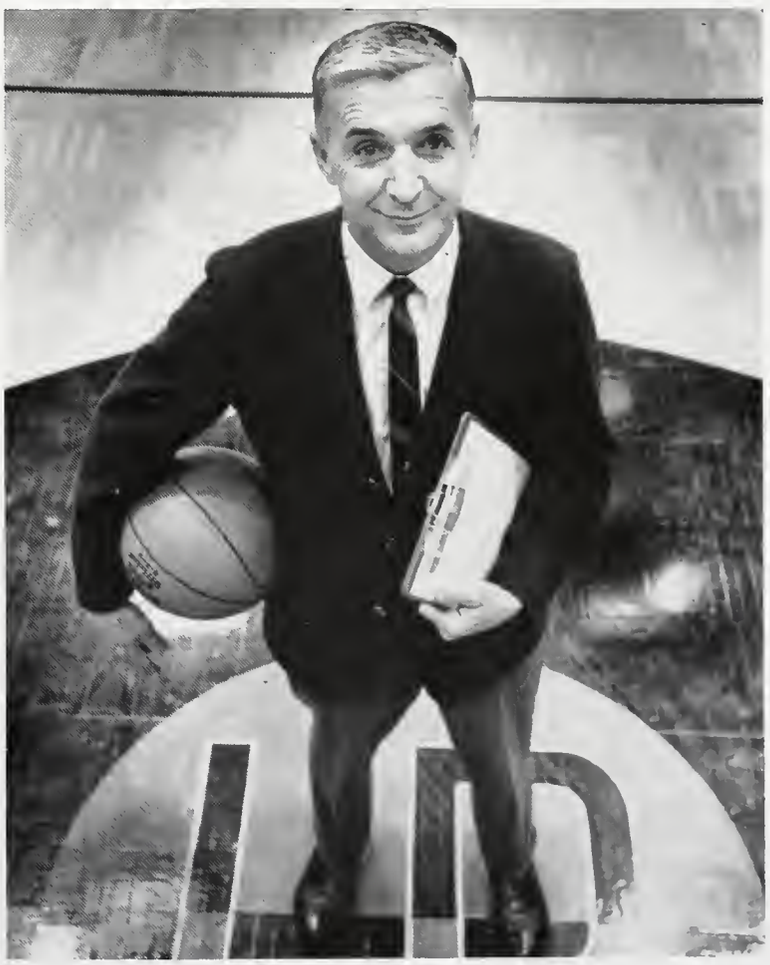

Freshman guard Dana Olson drives around a Georgia Southern forward for two points as the Bears go on to a 69-60 win over the nationally ranked Bulldogs.

1966-67 Basketball Team: Dana Olson, Kenny Sides, Joel Carroll, Aubrey Cochran, Bill Davis, Mark LaMoreaux, Dan Daugherty, Larry Walker, David Wells, Rich Hardy, R. D. Carson.

BASEBALL

Gene Icenhour, a power-hitter, crosses the plate after a homer and is congratulated by jubilant teammates.

Coach Walter Cornwell

Carter Catlett puts all his weight behind the swing as he belts a line drive against Presbyterian.

Walt Cornwell led his baseball Bears to their best record in five years as R. D. Carson, Carter Catlett, Gene Icenhour, and Tom Bengtson led a strong corps of Bruin hitters. Ralph Grubbs proved to be the Bears' outstanding pitcher. He was backed up by Barry Gibson, Steve Sisk, and Kenny Morrison.

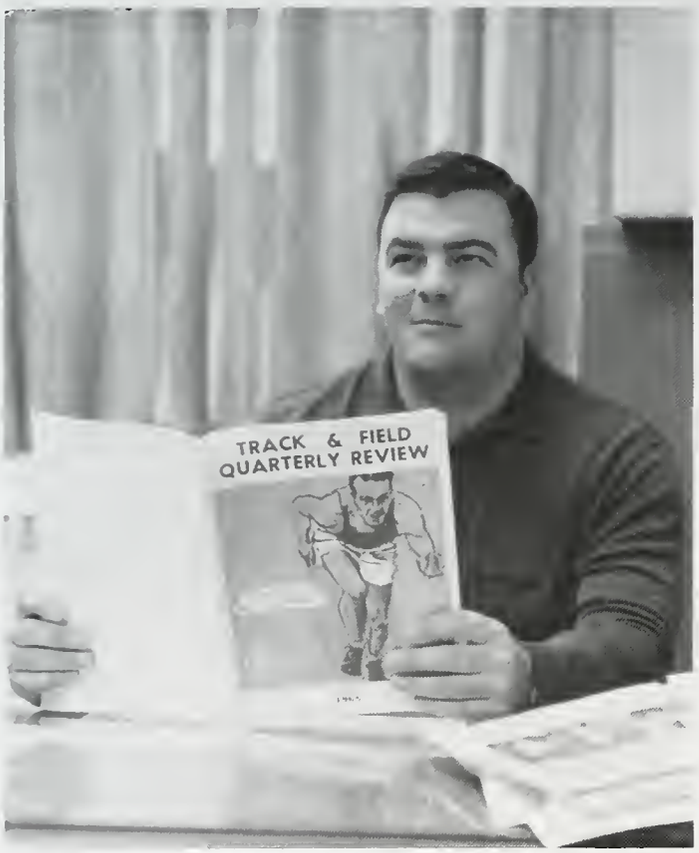

R. D. Carson, one of the slickest fielders in the league, scoops up a ground ball for the first half of a put-out.

Taking it easy.

TRACK

First-year Coach Danny Williams was so successful that he was the Southeast's nominee for NAIA Track Coach of the Year. Williams' cindermen won their sixth NAIA District 26 track crown in seven seasons. Sam Holcombe was the top sprinter in the league and also the best broad-jumper and triple-jumper. He now holds the Davidson Relays record in the triple jump and the conference mark in the 100. Mike Campbell and Wayne Bell gave ample support in the dashes while Norman Johnson was the lone distance runner. Bo Forehand also set a new NAIA District 26 record in the discus.

Coach Danny Williams

Coach Danny Williams, nominated in his first year for NAIA Track Coach of the Year, gives a pointer to Sam Holcombe as field event specialist Glenn Morrison looks on.

Sam Holcombe, conference record holder, blasts out of the blocks during a practice session.

Calvin Dull, veteran Bear hurdler, displays fine form as he clears the first hurdle.

Glenn Morrison, one of LR's biggest point-getters, runs through a strenuous afternoon of training.

TENNIS

1966 Tennis Team: Kneeling: David Misenheimer, Charles Crouse. Standing: Jim Hasty, Bob Barker, Byron Dahl.

Byron Dahl, sophomore member of the team, charges forward to return a delivery in the front court.

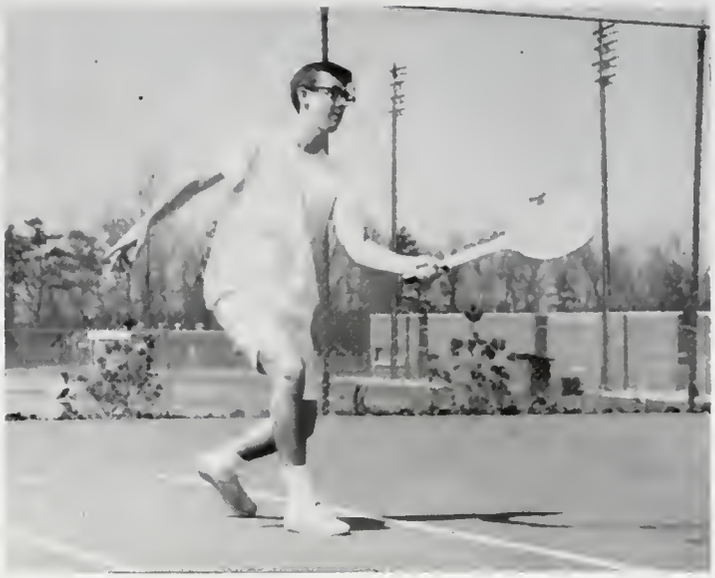

David Misenheimer has height to his advantage in his returns.

Neil McGeachy, tennis coach, displays fine form to his team as he delivers a serve across court.

Intramural free throw champ David Sparks prepares for competition. Sparks hit a record 56-60 in official competition.

Laird Griffin, intramural tennis champion, returns a serve by his opponent during competition for individual singles honors.

INTRAMURALS

Freshman girls demonstrate their skill and active participation in the girls' physical education program directed by Mrs. Sue Lucke.

Among the high scorers for the 1966 intramural football season were Barry Hastings, Rick Abercrombie, Steve Wilson, and Chris Lippard.

Other high scorers in football intramurals were Jim Edwards, Calvin Dull, Kenny Morrison, Lucius Cooke, and Doug Carter.

Kappa Omicron Chapter

The Kappa Omicron Chapter celebrates its sixteenth year at Lenoir Rhyne College this year. Many new and exciting events have taken place, among them the float with brother Rimmer as a "Greek" Joe Bear . . . selection of our lovely sweetheart Miss Barbara Bernhardt . . . trips to the Western Carolina Center . . . parties at the Xi "Hut" including a Hootenanny given by the pledges . . . our 6294 banquet . . . and honorable mention at the Greek All-Sing, a skits program with some fine singing. All in all, it has been a busy year for the brothers and pledges, and we have grown closer in the bonds of brotherhood because of it.

CLASSES

We came,
And the halls, walls, and campus
Looked on our roamings
And smiled—
The silent, unseen smile
Which only decades
Of enduring stone may know,
As they have watched
The students come and go.

THE YEAR

We put ourselves to action
For the truth that makes men free.
To realize our own goals—

Which made us one.

GREEKS a-g-g-

DO NOT COME BELOW THIS LINE — IT WILL NOT GO IN!!

DO NOT COME BELOW THIS LINE — IT WILL NOT GO IN!!

Fall.

The highlight of a football halftime.

Lenoir Rhyne honors Dr. Larson at the 75th Anniversary Convocation.

In the first frost of October
And the early glint of spring

The pause that "refreshes."

Rip 'em up, tear 'em up, give 'em . . . Bears!

The LR version was a success.

David, Della Rosa, and Brooks.

A remnant of fall.

An experiment in religious jazz.

We "went" to convocation.

Study became creation.

In the deftly silent snow of winter
You and I
Surrounded by the promise

Could you please remove your cap, sir?

The promise . . .
That each new day
Would make us

Faith and Life series.

Searching . . .

Chaplain Louis Rogers came South.

A concert that really moved.

Carson-Newman goes up in flames.

The Uncalled For Three have a philosophy.

The Tams.

Not only older,
But a little wiser;
Not only more mature
But also more aware of our maturity.

The season was marked by spectacular plays.

A trophy is presented to Miss Beth Petrich—Homecoming Queen 1967.

Presentation of Sponsors.

Bears are G-R-E-A-T!

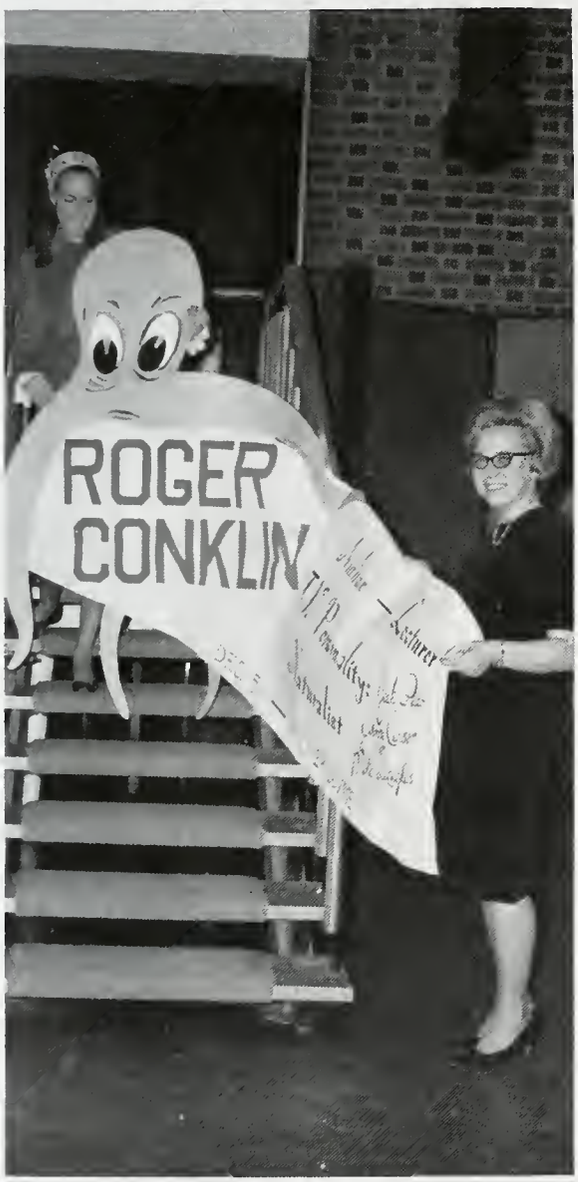

A smile from Pam Peer—Miss Lenoir Rhyne.

Victory! Their constant cry!

With so much before us
In this "our year,"
We did not neglect
Remembrance

Y'all come.

We continued to study.

The holidays began with a dance.

The Obernkirchen Choir.

The summary of a year.

Winter.

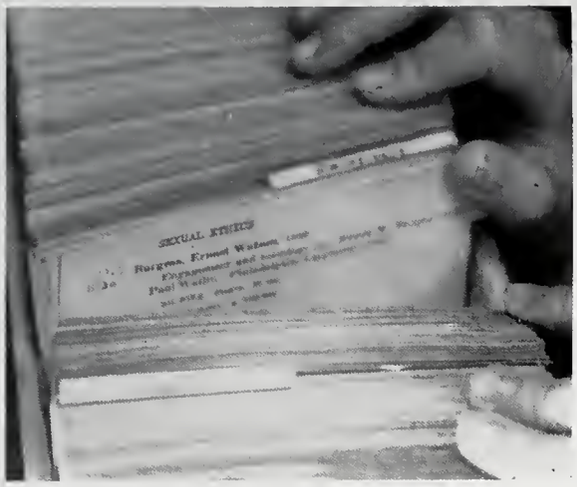

Straight from the White House—The Dukes of Dixieland.

"My Worm" by any freshman.

I can't seem to remember that weekend.

Research comes first.

The others would follow after.
Their hope would be ours
And "their year" would be another block

LR ranks on national polls.

In case you don't have anything else to do . . .

Spring.

The calm before the storm . . .

In the construction a whole—
The construction "to be free."

You'll be sore tomorrow.

Shadows of a spring afternoon.

In case of fire?

Miss Lee Lambie—1966 May Queen—and her court.

EPILOGUE

For as long as there have been

Nations

And peoples

And souls yearning for the highest

The best that life can offer—

Of wisdom

And of love—

There have been,

And will be in us,

Dedication to more than a noble standard.

Dedication, in courageous action,

Without apathy,

To the truth that makes men free.

You're the flippingest!

Today's young people are turned on and tuned in to what's happening. And things are happening because plentiful, low-priced electricity is making them happen. You flip the switches and turn the dials, and electricity does the rest. It makes life easier, happier, more comfortable and entertaining. And when you have a home of your own, electricity will work even harder to serve you. It's what's happening.
